

GDPR Readiness Statement

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will take effect across the EU on May 25, 2018. As a global organisation, Accent Design complies with all applicable data privacy laws and is fully committed to protecting the personal data of its clients and employees.

To meet the new privacy standard set by GDPR, Accent Design has assembled a team of dedicated professionals to help in the implementation of the required processes and protocols. Some of our ongoing GDPR initiatives include:

- Evaluating how all data we collect is used, stored and accessed
- Reviewing our internal policies and updating them as needed
- Encouraging a culture of privacy protection through regular training.

